ALBERTA
NATIONAL EVENT
MARCH 27-30, 2014
EDMONTON | SHAW CONFERENCE CENTRE

IT'S ABOUT WISDOM* – A NATIONAL JOURNEY FOR HEALING AND RECONCILIATION

For 116 years, thousands of Aboriginal children in Alberta were sent to Indian Residential Schools funded by the Government of Canada and run by churches. They were taken from their parents and communities, often forcibly, in order to be stripped of family ties, language, cultural identity and traditions. There were more Indian Residential Schools in Alberta than in any other province.

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) is holding its Alberta National Event in Edmonton from March 27 to 30, 2014. Come and share your truth about the schools and their legacy. Witness and celebrate the resilience of Aboriginal cultures!

Join the TRC from March 27-30, 2014 for:

- Statement Gathering
- Traditional Ceremonies
- Survivor Gatherings
- Witnessing Survivor Statements
- Cultural Performances
- Films, and more
- Education Day‡

‡Education Day, to be held March 27, features a full day of educational activities organized exclusively for school groups.

Be a part of the National Journey for Healing and Reconciliation!

All gatherings are open to the public. Admission is free.
Health Canada health supports will be available on site.
