

Pastor Quinn joined the team of ICPM in June of 2020. He brings to the job experience in pastoring several churches, working as a chaplain in AB Corrections, and a variety of ministry focused on poverty reduction and reconciliation. His passion is sharing the extraordinary and challenging news of what God is doing in the world in and through Jesus Christ; healing the sick, lifting up the poor and needy, and bringing justice, peace, love, and joy to a world in desperate need of them.

Quinn lives with his wife Maddie and two sons, Sam and Liam. He enjoys time with family, camping, hiking, growing stuff, being with diverse people, and life-long learning. He strives to be anti-racist and pro LGBTQ2+ in all he says and does.
